

MONEY TO LOAN.

I have money to loan at five and one-half per cent annual interest, with the privilege to the borrower of paying any part of the principal at any time, and rebate the interest from date of payment.

These are liberal terms and if you want money, now is a good time to get it.

I furnish abstracts and perfect titles to all lands and town lots in Saline county. I have buyers for Saline county farms. If you have one for sale let me know about it.

ABIEL LEONARD, Marshall, Mo.

Prairie Home School

Through the kindness and courtesy of my good friend, Mr. Chas. Demoss, teacher of Prairie Home school, the writer and wife were invited to attend the closing exercises of this school last Saturday, April 22. After a most bountiful dinner prepared by the good wives and mothers of the district the closing exercises took place. They consisted of recitations, dialogues and songs. All taking part did well showing the care taken by them and the teacher as well, to give the best possible display of their talents in this line as well as in their studies. It was a noteworthy fact that every pupil passed to a higher grade and one pupil had out of a possible six one hundred, five one hundred.

This showing speaks well for the teacher who has given the pupils such care during the time he has been teacher at this place. No better evidence of his fitness for the place could be given than the fact that the directors have given him the school for another term.

The world today is trying to solve the problem of keeping our young people on the farm and not letting so many drift to the city where the struggle for existence is so fierce and where so many go down under the severe strain. In my opinion two things are needed and must be obtained before this can be accomplished, namely Good roads and good rural schools. The whole day was one of pleasure and profit and carried me back in memory to my boyhood days on the farm and the district school in my native county of Howard.

I feel that special mention should be made of little Miss Sylvia Demoss, sister of the teacher, who rendered so beautifully several songs. The little girl has a voice of rare sweetness and tone and if trained will some day become a beautiful singer. Also the negro songs by Don Byars were highly pleasing to all present.

May we all live to see another year go by and meet again under such pleasant surroundings as my sincere wish. B. M. Spotts.

Scholarship at M. S. U.

The state board of agriculture will offer two scholarships in the Missouri College of Agriculture next winter. Each will be for $50 and will be awarded on condition that the winner attends the short winter course. One will go to the person between 16 and 25 years who is most efficient in live stock judging and the other to the best judge of corn. The contests will be decided at the state fair next fall by the college of agriculture.

The total number of scholarships available to young farmers in Missouri for the short winter course is now fifty-nine. Forty-five are offered by the Frisco road and twelve by the Santa Fe.

For Sale Very Cheap

In Cripple Creek, Colorado. Several good houses, all very convenient and in fine location; fenced and plenty of out-buildings; also cellars.

Some well equipped yards for yards. The properties must be seen to appreciate the sacrifice. They are being offered for $700 and $1000, as the owner must retire from all responsibilities, owing to old age and afflictions.

Cripple Creek is a great gold center for mining and well known for all kinds of labor and high wages the year round, $3.00 to $5.00 per day working 8 hours in a delightful climate the whole year round; best of mountain water, etc.

Would also sell furniture all ready for house-keeping. For particulars call or write this office.

Likes New Home

Canyon Tex., April 22. Mr. J. J. Witt:

Kind Sir:—You will find enclosed $1.00 for which please send me the Marshall Republican for one year. I left Marshall four months ago and I find it a task to do without the Republican. This is a healthy climate as I have had my health better since I arrived in the Panhandle than I have had for years. Everything is looking fine. Prospects are good for good crops.

This is my third trip out here and I expect to make it my future home as I like it here in every respect so please send me the paper. Grover C. Utz.

If you have sore eyes of any kind use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. It is good for nothing but the eyes. It is painless and harmless, and is positively the best. If you don't say so we will refund your money. Try it and then tell your neighbor. Sold every where. 25c a tube.

Wreckers Caught

John J. McNamara, secretary-treasurer of International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, was arrested in his Indianapolis office Saturday and taken at once to Los Angeles, Cal. to answer the charge of dynamiting the Times building, which caused the death of many people and destruction of property. With him were a number of accomplices who had been 'shadowed' and their connection with the many explosions over the country positively assured. They had a big supply of dynamite, nitro-glycerine, fuse, clocks for timing, etc. A speedy execution of justice with the co-operation of our labor unions will do all concerned more good than the attitude of hostility to law taken by union officials throughout the west.

Boone County White Seed Corn

which makes the high test of 93 per cent for sale at Peecher & Son's grocery, J. S. Crockett, Marshall, Mo. 17p.

Wolf Hunt

The Central Missouri Fox and Wolf Hunting Association decided recently at Sedalia to hold the annual hunt at Elk Lick Springs, Mo., eighteen miles northeast of Sedalia. The hunt will last from May 22 to May 26. May 25 will be 'ladies' day,' when an invitation will be extended to the wives and friends of the club members to watch the hunt. More than one hundred hounds will participate in the chase and silver prizes will be awarded for various merits.

Every Bottle is Guaranteed

Every bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is guaranteed to give satisfaction in all throat and bronchial troubles.

Parnell Sentinel says: "Recently a citizen of our village was wheeling home a load of old oyster cans, bottles etc., and curious to know what use he could put them to, we made inquiry. 'Going to throw them over in my back yard,' he explained. 'We are going to have some relations from the city visiting us. We haven't got much to eat, but if they see these cans, bottles and boxes lying all around, they'll think we have had oysters, champagne, fruit and nuts till we're tired of them, and are now living on bread and liver for a healthy change.'"

J. G. Goodwin has put in a new glass front in his south side grocery and now has the neatest grocery in town.

TIES THAT BIND.

Sweet Influence of Children After a Stay in Reno.

Dear Percival—The time has come when, in spite of our disagreement, I must appeal to you for the sake of your son.

If you do not wish the boy to become a hypochondriac in this desolate place you will do something for him at once. The poor little fellow pines for the pleasures to which he has been accustomed. "Oh, mamma," he exclaimed yesterday, "I haven't been kidnapped either by you or papa in more than a month!"

I think, Percival, that you could spare a few days from your question the pleasures in New York to at least deal your own son. But do be careful. If he suspected that I had written to you about it half his pleasure would be spoiled. Engage plenty of detectives and let him be shadowed for a few days before laying hands on him. He expressed the wish that he might be carried off to an airship. He is so tired of automobiles!

It is the long waiting that troubles the boy. He is really very much interested in the divorce proceedings and testifies beautifully against you at rehearsals, avoiding the truth with an inherent sagacity that reminds me of you.

But how he misses the crowds and the gayeties of dear New York! Here there is nothing but sheep for him to kill on his joy rides and not a chorus girl for him to marry.

Do not spend too much money on Natalie. You always did spoil the girl and neglect the boy. Algernon is terribly jealous because her picture was in the papers in connection with your sentence to prison for the banking fraud. I shall really have to give up my suit and return if you do not see your duty in his matter. Yours pending. EMMALYNE.

Reno, Dec. 10, 1910.

Dear Em—Great idea! Come ahead and save me from this crazy kid. Never mind about the boy. If he's big enough to force all these magnificent checks I'm paying he's big enough to kidnap himself. But Natalie, at fifteen, is a worse nuisance than you were at forty. Forgive the figures and the tense. I'm nearly mad with trying to amuse her.

Just tried the sixth chauffeur this week. Wouldn't do. Too homely to elope with. To tell the truth, you know, I sometimes half disapprove of this chauffeur eloping craze anyhow. It was all right when it was new, but it's getting all to the Elmer Glyn.

"Papa," she blubbered today, "I have not been arrested for smuggling since mamma went away." It was heartrending. I tried to get her to read a book—handed her "The Song of Songs"—but she said it was too stupidly moral. I hope she'll be quiet tonight, for she's giving a barefoot dance at Mrs. Calfrile's. Her costume arrived today in a postcard, price $2,500. The less the more with these dressmakers. I hate to disturb your plans for being rid of me, but for my part I'm ready for a complete reconciliation, you to live in Paris and I here, all just as comfortable and happy as it was before.

And we shall always cherish the thought that it was our little ones who brought us together. Your affectionate husband, PERCIVAL.—Chester Firkins in Puck.

The Splendid Jack, YOUNG CUSTER,

is a black jack 16 hands high, sired by Granule Jr. No. 618; he by Imported Granule 617; first dam Julia Walker; 2d dam by Napoleon of Glenwater. Grand dam by General Custer.

Young Custer has proven himself to be a grand breeder on both mares and jennets. W. B. Gibson, the former owner of Young Custer, says: "I can fully recommend him to anyone having a lot of jennets to breed, for his colts are all good size with lots of bone and extra good head, ears and feet, and more style and get-up than any jack's colts I have ever seen. No one can make a mistake in breeding their best mares and jennets to Young Custer, and Saline County has, in Young Custer, one of the best jacks, I think, in Missouri."

TERMS:—For mares, $10 to insure a living colt. For jennets, $30 for a jack colt; $15 for jennet colt.

A lien will be retained on all colts until terms of season are complied with. In all cases where mares are bred and sold, or leave the county, the money will be due. Care will be taken to prevent accidents but we will not be responsible should any occur.

Silkwood and Young Custer will make the season of 1911 at W. C. Keirn farm, 5 miles southwest of Marshall, on the Marshall and Sweet Springs road.

W. C. KEIRN, JULIUS OSTER.
